DIVISION MEMORANDUM

NO. 066, s. 2026

ADMINISTRATION OF THE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER'S PROFILE AND INSTRUCTIONAL DELIVERY SURVEY FOR SY 2026-2027

TO: Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chief Education Supervisor, CID
Public Schools District Supervisors
Heads of Secondary and Integrated Schools
Senior High School Teachers

1. In support of the Division's continuous efforts to strengthen curriculum implementation, teacher support systems, and learning delivery in Senior High School (SHS), this Office shall conduct the "Administration of the Senior High School Teacher's Profile and Instructional Delivery Survey for SY 2026-2027" from July 17-22, 2026.
2. The survey aims to gather relevant and up-to-date information on the professional profile, teaching assignments, qualifications, training needs, instructional practices, learning resources, assessment approaches, and challenges encountered by SHS teachers in the delivery of the curriculum.
3. Specifically, the survey seeks to:
 - a) establish an updated database of Senior High School teachers;
 - b) determine teacher specialization, academic qualifications, and teaching load distribution;
 - c) identify prevailing modalities, strategies, and practices in teaching and learning delivery;
 - d) assess the availability and utilization of learning resources and instructional materials;
 - e) identify challenges, professional development needs, and support requirements of teachers; and
 - f) generate evidence-based inputs for policy formulation, technical assistance, workforce planning, and curriculum enhancement initiatives.
4. All Senior High School teachers are directed to accomplish the survey form completely and accurately within the prescribed period. School Heads shall ensure 100% participation of all SHS teachers.
