SUPPLEMENTARY GUIDELINES ON FIRST TERM ASSESSMENT
(SY 2026-2027)

1. Test Design and TOS Compliance

Learning Area Supervisors shall determine the prescribed percentage distribution (Easy, Average, and Difficult items) per learning area and grade level.

Approved Table of Specifications (TOS) must strictly reflect the prescribed difficulty, content/performance standards, Most Essential Learning Competencies, Budgets of Work (BOW) and cognitive demand of the curriculum.

2. Assessment Coverage for TLE Specializations and SHS Subjects

Division-developed test materials shall be provided exclusively for the following subjects and specializations:

Junior High School – TLE Specializations

Grade 9: Food Preparation, Food Service, and Agricultural Crop Production

Grade 10: Food Preparation, Food Service, Food and Beverage Processing, and Tourism Services

Senior High School Subjects

Grade 11: General Mathematics, General Science, Pag-aaral sa Kasaysayan, Philippine Governance, Mabisang Komunikasyon, Effective Communication, and Life & Career Skills

Grade 12: 21st Century Literature, Media and Information Literacy, Health Optimizing Physical Education (HOPE), and Filipino sa Tanging Larang

All other TLE specializations and SHS subjects not listed above shall utilize teacher-made tests, subject to school-level quality assurance and strict alignment with approved Table of Specifications (TOS).

3. Utilization of Assessment Results and Remediation

Immediately following the test administration, teachers shall analyze assessment results to identify the Least Mastered Competencies (LMCs) and formulate targeted intervention plan.

School Heads shall validate intervention strategies and monitor the execution of learning recovery activities during the designated End-of-Term Block, in compliance with the Three-Term School Calendar.

4. Technical Assistance and Governance

Education Program Supervisors and Public Schools District Supervisors shall provide technical assistance and monitor school compliance across all assessment phases.

Designated Test Writers and QA Teams shall adhere strictly to Division CID timelines and quality assurance standards.

Unaffected provisions of Division Memorandum No. 65, s. 2026 remain fully enforced.
