REGIONAL MEMORANDUM
No. 127, s. 2026

2026 DEPED MIMAROPA REGIONAL SCHOOLS PRESS CONFERENCE

To: ASSISTANT REGIONAL DIRECTOR
SCHOOLS DIVISION SUPERINTENDENTS
CHIEF EDUCATION SUPERVISORS, RO AND SDOs
JOURNALISM FOCAL PERSONS, RO AND SDOs
REGIONAL ASSOCIATION OF ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOL PAPER ADVISERS
ALL OTHERS CONCERNED

1. Pursuant to Republic Act (RA) No. 7079, or the Campus Journalism Act of 1991, the Department of Education (DepEd) MIMAROPA Region, through the Curriculum and Learning Management Division (CLMD), shall conduct the 2026 DepEd MIMAROPA Regional Schools Press Conference (RSPC) on December 8–11, 2026, in Tagaytay City, with the theme, "The Voice of MIMAROPA Youth, the Voice of the People: Journalism with Conviction for Truth and Change." The exact venue shall be announced through a separate issuance.

2. The RSPC serves as the culminating regional activity for campus journalism, providing learners with opportunities to demonstrate their journalistic skills, uphold responsible and ethical journalism, and use their voices meaningfully across various media platforms. Specifically, it aims to:
   a. demonstrate journalistic competence across print, broadcast, and online platforms;
   b. strengthen learners' understanding of the role of journalism in promoting social consciousness and environmental awareness;
   c. uphold fairness, ethics, and integrity as foundations of responsible journalism;
   d. foster camaraderie and enrich learning through healthy and friendly competition; and
   e. provide opportunities for learners to apply their journalistic skills in their academic pursuits and future endeavours.

3. Consistent with the protection of instructional time under DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2026, preparatory training and other Schools Press Conference (SPC)-related activities shall be scheduled and conducted without disrupting learners' instructional time. Each campus journalist shall strictly participate in only one (1) contest event, whether in an individual or group category.

4. The Schools Division Offices (SDOs) shall conduct their respective Division Schools Press Conferences (DSPCs) as the basis for selecting official participants to the RSPC.

5. The eligible RSPC participants include the following:

Contest/Categories	Eligible Participants
A. Master Class
Individual Contests and Group Contests	First Place DSPC winners who qualify for the RSPC individual and group contests
B. 2026 RSPC
Individual Contests	First Place Winner in the DSPC
Group Contests	First Place team in each group contest event at the DSPC, with one (1) team per medium. Each team shall be composed of seven (7) members, except Online Publishing, which shall have five (5) members. The SDO may create a composite team composed of qualified learners from different schools within the division.
School Paper Contests	First to fifth place winners in each section, per medium and level (Elem and Sec), at the DSPC
Most Outstanding School Paper Adviser	First Place winner at each level at the DSPC
Most Outstanding Campus Journalist	First Place winner at each level at the DSPC

6. To provide equitable learning opportunities for all qualifiers of the 2026 RSPC, Master Class Training sessions shall be conducted across the different contest categories and media platforms. These sessions are intended to further develop and enhance the participants' journalistic competencies, technical skills, and appreciation of responsible journalism through lectures, hands-on training workshops, and feedbacking sessions facilitated by the designated Resource Speakers.

The Master Class sessions shall generally be conducted from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM on scheduled weekends. For sessions falling on weekdays, the initial training shall be conducted from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM, with additional workshop and feedbacking sessions to be scheduled and communicated through the respective category group chats (GCs) to ensure completion of the prescribed training hours. Separate GCs shall be created for each contest category, comprising the Education Program Supervisors (EPSs) Journalism Focal Person, Resource Speakers, and Campus Journalism (CJ) and School Paper Advisers (SPA) Focal Persons to facilitate coordination and the timely dissemination of training-related instructions.

The Schools Division Office (SDO) EPSs CJ Focal shall monitor and ensure the attendance and participation of the intended learner-qualifiers and their respective coaches throughout the scheduled training sessions. All concerned are likewise directed to ensure that the necessary parental consent forms are secured from participating learners prior to their attendance in the training sessions.

b. Search for the Most Outstanding School Paper Advisers (MOSPAs) and Most Outstanding Campus Journalists (MOCJs)

7. All participating schools shall have a current school paper publication in PDF or digital format. The SDO shall submit the school paper publications of all participating schools through the designated RO link for verification prior to the RSPC.

8. Each SDO shall allocate an additional two (2) to five (5) participants from the Division School Paper Associations, from both elementary and secondary levels. These participants shall be responsible for the preparation, setup, decoration, management, and monitoring of their respective School Paper Exhibit Booths throughout the activity. They shall also register for the activity, with the corresponding registration fees charged against any available and eligible local funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

9. Consistent with Republic Act No. 8293 or the Intellectual Property Code of the Philippines and the ethical standards of campus journalism, plagiarism in any form is strictly prohibited. Any school paper or contest entry found to contain copied or published material without proper attribution shall be disqualified upon verification by the Regional Technical Working Group (RTWG) and Board of Judges. For School Paper Contests, a verified case of plagiarism in any section shall result in the disqualification of the entire school paper entry.

10. The top three (3) winners in each individual and group contest event shall be recognized. For the School Paper Contest, the top five (5) entries in each section, per medium and level, shall likewise be recognized. Only the points earned from the individual and group contests shall be considered in determining the overall ranking, in accordance with the guidelines provided in Enclosure No. 9.

    Consistent with the practice at the national level, the results of the Most Outstanding Campus Journalist, Most Outstanding School Paper Adviser, and School Paper Contest, as well as Literary Journalism for ALS Learners, a region-initiated contest, shall be excluded from the computation of points for the overall ranking.

11. Candidates for the MOSPA and MOCJ shall submit the required documents in PDF format, duly certified as true and correct by the Division Journalism Focal Person and endorsed by the Schools Division Superintendent (SDS). The Division Journalism Focal Person shall upload the complete documents through the designated links below on or before October 23, 2026:

22. The Literary Journalism Contest (English and Filipino) for ALS Junior High School learners will be continued as a regional initiative . Because the contest has no counterpart event in the NSPC, the regional winners will not advance to the NSPC.

23. Each SDO shall send one (1) ALS learner-participant and one (1) ALS teacher-coach per medium (English and Filipino), as well as one (1) ALS Supervisor. The contest guidelines are provided in Enclosure No. 13a.

24. The registration to cover the food and accomodation of the ALS Literary Journalism participants, coaches and EPS shall be charged against the Regional ALS PSF, while travel and incidental expenses shall be charged against the downloaded ALS PSF, local funds, SEF, or other eligible funding sources, subject to existing government accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

25. A registration fee amounting to Six Thousand Pesos (Php 6,000.00) shall be collected from each participant, chargeable to the SEF and/or any available and eligible local funds, subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations. The said fee shall cover food and accommodation for the entire duration of the activity.

Prior to the conduct of the activity, the EPS in charge of Journalism shall manage the registration and shall deposit the fee to the DepEd Region IV-B Trust Fund through the following bank details:

Servicing Bank: Land Bank of the Philippines – DepEd Branch
Account Name: DepEd Region IV-B Trust Fund
Account Number: 3342101290

Scanned deposit slips, together with the accomplished registration form, shall be submitted on or before December 1, 2026, via email dhesiree.salvador@deped.gov.ph, with a copy furnished to vidabianca.mercader@deped.gov.ph and kamillekay.tamor@deped.gov.ph. If payment through bank deposit is not feasible, participants may pay in cash to the Administrative Officer IV – Cashier of DepEd MIMAROPA Region on December 8, 2026, during the registration at the venue.

26. To uphold accountability and ensure the safety and well-being of the learners, all participants are required to submit a duly signed Parental or Guardian Waiver Form upon registration on December 8, 2026. The waiver shall signify parental/guardian consent for the learner to participate in the activities, including overnight accommodations, and will confirm that the parents/guardians are informed of the nature of the event.

To ensure the health and safety of all participants, each SDO is requested to facilitate a basic medical check-up or health clearance for their delegates before the activity. They may use the Medical Health Clearance Template issued by their respective SDOs. This shall also be submitted during the registration upon arrival on December 8, 2026. This requirement is intended to safeguard the well-being of learners and advisers and to ensure that they are medically fit to participate in all activities.

27. Official photos will be captured throughout the duration of the RSPC to document its activities. These photos will be used exclusively for documentation, reporting, and publication purposes, in strict alignment with DepEd communication and information dissemination guidelines, pursuant to Republic Act No. 10173 or the Data Privacy Act of 2012.

28. The honoraria, food, and accommodation of the Board of Judges and Program Management Team (PMT) as well as contest supplies, medals, trophies, plaques, and other necessary conference expenses shall be charged against Regional MOOE, subject to the same accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

29. Check-in for participants shall begin at 2:00 P.M. on December 8, 2026, and check-out shall be no later than 12:00 noon on December 11, 2026. Early accommodations shall not be provided; therefore, participants arriving before the prescribed check-in time shall make their own arrangements. Parents, guardians, and other accompanying persons who are not part of the official delegation shall likewise arrange and pay for their own accommodations.

30. The first meal shall be served as PM snack on December 8, 2026, and the last meal shall be lunch on December 11, 2026. Participants shall make their own arrangements for meals outside the covered period.

31. Official division delegations must be at the venue before the Opening Program on December 8, 2026, at 1:00 P.M.

32. All teacher-coaches, SDO and RO personnel who participated in the activity shall be granted Service Credit/Compensatory Time Off (CTO) for December 8, 2026 (Feast of the Immaculate Conception of Mary), in accordance with DepEd Order No. 53, s. 2003 (Updated Guidelines on the Grant of Vacation Service Credits to Teachers) and CSC-DBM Joint Circular No. 2, s. 2025 (Policies and Guidelines on Overtime Services and Overtime Pay for Government Employees).

33. The decision of the Board of Judges shall be final and irrevocable.

34. For further inquiries and concerns, please contact Wendell I. Formalejo, Chief Education Supervisor, CLMD, at clmd.mimaroparegion@deped.gov.ph and/or Vida Bianca M. Laus and Kamille Kay Q. Tamor, Education Program Supervisors in charge of Journalism, at vidabianca.mercader@deped.gov.ph or kamillekay.tamor@deped.gov.ph.

35. Immediate and wide dissemination of the contents of this memorandum is desired.
